

Season of Prayer 2009

The theme for this years season of prayer is:
Outside My Space.

"Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.'" Matthew 9:37-38 (New International Version). South Carolina is our mission field and Jesus calls us, through His word, to be workers for the harvest.

Many ministries in South Carolina are working Outside My Space to bring the gospel to people in diverse ways. Church planters are expanding "my space" by planting churches here in our state as well as in other lands.

Who was Janie Chapman?

In 1902, Janie Weston Chapman was elected the first president of Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to South Carolina Baptist Convention. She was the wife of a prominent upstate pastor, J.D. Chapman. In 1937, WMU's state missions offering was named "The Mrs. J.D. Chapman Offering for State Interests" to honor Mrs. Chapman's strong missions leadership. In 1985, the name was changed to the "Janie Chapman Offering."

Read more about Janie Chapman in the SC WMU history written by Mary Foster, We the Women, Telling His Story, available through the SC WMU office or on the SCWU website: www.scwmu.org.

Each year we set aside a Sunday in September for the Janie Chapman offering. This year it is September 20. All money received stays in South Carolina for missions.
